

Easy serenity

Simplicity reigns in this bedroom, where an uncluttered look and limited white, brown, and lime-green palette make for an oasislike retreat. At night, the milk chocolate wall color is cozy and enveloping. During the day, all-white bedding and window treatments keep the room bright. In a room this quiet, it only takes one dose of color to make an impact, and the tall headboard delivers.

TRY THIS AT HOME
A small-scale writing desk at the bedside is the perfect place for jotting down midnight inspiration or checking e-mail. Hang any art low enough to be at eye level when seated at the desk.
